A regular meeting of the School Board of Independent School District No. 831, Forest Lake, Minnesota, was called to order by President Bill Bresin at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 3, 2009, at the School District Office Building. Following the Pledge of Allegiance, roll was called and the following members were present: Bill Bresin, Julie Corcoran, David Gay, Dan Kieger, Eric Langness, Rob Rapheal, and Superintendent Dr. Linda Madsen, ex officio. Member Joe Grafft was absent.

The meeting agenda was reviewed and unchanged.

4. VISITORS:

Minnesota Senator Rick Olseen reported on education issues addressed in the last legislative session and issues facing the legislature next year.

H1N1 – Fred Anderson and Lowell Johnson from Washington County Public Health addressed the School Board on the H1N1 novel virus and the guidelines and support they will be providing.

Listening Session: Members Eric Langness and Dan Kieger reported that four people attended the Listening Session where they discussed the grad testing scores, and the enthusiasm of the senior high Pep Band.

Parents Mike Nelson and Kevin Glazek spoke regarding student safety issues at the senior high. They were encouraged to contact Superintendent Madsen to discuss their concerns.

FLEA President Tony Harris reported that staff has returned for a new school year and the excitement and energy level is very high.

5. STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT:

Lino Lakes Elementary – Principal Jan Masterson announced that on August 20th Lino Lakes Elementary School was named a “School of Excellence” by the Minnesota Elementary School Principals Association, and gave an overview of the Minnesota School of Excellence Program and what is involved.

World Language Curriculum Review - Senior High world language teacher Megan Espe-Och presented a review of the district’s World Language program and curriculum.

Positive Happenings:

Bill Bresin attended the Forest Lake Elementary and Century Junior High open houses this week, and the all-staff opening session on Monday. He announced that the Forest Lake senior high FFA display took first place at the State Fair.
Julie Corcoran announced that she also attended the Forest Lake Elementary open house and it was well attended by students and their parents.

Dan Kieger attended open houses at Scandia and Montessori Elementary Schools.

Rob Rapheal commented that there was a lot of excitement and enthusiasm at the Century Junior High open house. He also reported that he was impressed that his son’s bus driver came to his house to talk about his son’s bus pick up.

REPORTS:

Language Immersion Task Force – Superintendent Madsen reported that our language task force will be visiting the full language immersion model at Lakes International Language Academy (LILA) on September 11, and will also be touring a partial immersion model in Northfield. The task force plans on presenting their recommendation to the School Board in October.

Superintendent’s report – Superintendent Madsen introduced new senior high Assistant Principal Jim Caldwell. Jim worked in our district previously as a teacher and Dean. Gayle McGrane has published an article in a University of Minnesota School of Social Work publication. Her article is titled: “Foster Care & School: It is about Communication”. Dr. Madsen reported that she has recently met with LATV, the Retired Educators group, and the Youth Service Bureau. President Obama’s speech to students will not be shown to students on Tuesday. The new and all-teacher in-services and community-sponsored luncheons went very well and staff is ready for a new school year.
