A Chubby Little Snowman

A chubby little snowman,
(Hold arms out to make a circle in front of your tummy)
Had a carrot for a nose,
(Point to nose.)
Along came a bunny,
(Hop like a bunny.)
And what do you suppose?
(Shrug your shoulders)
That hungry little bunny
(Rub stomach.)
Looking for his lunch (Hold hand above eyes, as if searching for something.)
Ate that snowman's carrot nose,
(Pretend to eat.)
Nibble, nibble, crunch!!

Act out the song with your child. Grab a carrot from the fridge, and take turns being the snowman and the bunny.

Snowmen at Night by Caralyn Buehner

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WVw-XSVDD7E>

After you listen to the story, discuss the following questions:

- "What did the little boy put on the snowman?"
- "Why do you think the snowman looked different when the little boy returned?"
- "What does the little boy think snowmen do at night?"
- "Is this real or make-believe?"

Snowmen Bowling

Materials:

- styrofoam or plastic cups
- markers or construction paper
- ball

Directions:

- Using markers or construction paper, create snowman faces on the cups
- Stack the cups up on top of each other
- Take turns rolling the ball to knock over the snowmen

This activity: encourages creativity, strengthens eye/hand coordination, explores the concept of balance, works on turn - taking skills
